Her left leg was fractured, and in addition she sustained internal injuries.

Mrs. Biggs was driving the family horse in the castern part of Kirkwood and turned him so sharply around a corner that the vehicle was overturned and she was thrown out. The horse became frightened and started to run. Mrs. Biggs pluckly held on to the lines until forced to let go.

After the accident she was carried to her home by neighbors who heard her screams.

COUPLE AGAIN RECONCILED.

William Bennett and Wife Resume Marital Relations Third Time.

The marital troubles of Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett of St. Louis County have again been smoothed over and the couple are united again for the third time. Yesterday Mrs. Benrett, through her attorney, H. W. Femmer, dismissed the petition for divorca that she had pending in the Clayton Circuit that she had pending in the Clayton Circuit Court.

The Bennetts were married June 9, 1875, and lived tegether until September 22, 1878, when they separated and the wife filed suit for divorce. Before it was called for trial, the difficulties were settled and the couple lived again together until October 8, 1922, when they again separated. Shortly afterwards Mrs. Bennett filed her second petition for divorce, alleging general indignities. The couple have five children, and it is said it was on their account that they decided to forget the past and try to live happily together hereafter.

Bandmaster Edward H. Bloeser Says Regular Band Will Not Go Unless Paid More Than State Allowance.

The First Regiment and Light Battery A Saturday night for Lake Contrary, near St. Joseph, Mo., to attend the annual encampment. The First Regiment, 400 strong, will the Missouri Pecific.

An advance guard, consisting of three coned officers from the various companies and four noncimmissioned officers from the staff, under command of Captain F. R. Luirimore, will depart to-night to stake out the regimental grounds and to have everything in readiness for the arrival of the regiment.

It is not known whether a band will ac company the regiment, but it is probable that one will. Bandmaster Edward H. Bloesser stated that the regular band would not accompany the regiment unless they were paid more than the State allowance. This, he says, is but $5 or $5 a week. He says that the men all have families and belong to the union. The regular pay of a union musician is Si a day. He says that if they were offered $2 per day they probably would accompany the regiment. It is probable that another band will be taken along. The members of the First Regiment are still hopeful of being supplied with the new Krag-Jorgensen guns before leaving for the encampment.

The following regiments will take par in the encampment: First, Second, Third and Fourth regiments, infantry; Sixth Battalion, unattached, and Light Battery A. SOLDIERS RECEIVE PAY.

The expense of the field service is to be paid out of the allowance made the State by the general Government, under the act of Congress approved January 21, which provides that officers and calisted men of the National Guard while engaged in actual field or camp service for instruction shall be entitled to the same pay, sub sistence and transportation as officers and enlisted men of corresponding grades of the regular army.

The following are the marching orders issued to the regiment: The regiment will assemble at the At mory Saturday, July 18, at 8 o'clock p. m. The service uniform (khaki) will be worn. The dress uniform will be carried in blanket bags. No civilian clothing will be carried. The regiment will leave the Armory at about 9 o'clock p. m. and march to Union Station, where they will take the
